INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

THE WAY
OF JESUS

CALVARY CHAPEL COSTA MESA | JUNE 28–JULY 1, 2021
CONFERENCE.CALVARYCHAPEL.COM
#CALVARYCGN

DEAR FRIENDS,

After more than a year of having our world and churches turned upside down by COVID and other events, we are finally emerging into the new and unknown. With all the uncertainty that still lies ahead, it is so good to know that the Lord is with us, and He will faithfully lead us into the future just as He has done in the past. I believe that the way forward into this new world is in the Way of Jesus.

Our time together this year will be a time of refocusing and reconsidering this Way. I know that through the teaching sessions, the fellowship, the worship, and the prayer times, the Lord is going to meet us in a powerful way to strengthen and equip us for the work ahead.

Looking forward to enjoying this sweet time of encouragement in the Spirit as we gather to wait upon the Lord, knowing that “those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; ... they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint” (Isaiah 40:31).

Grace and Peace,

Brian

SPEAKER BIOS

Ray Bentley founded Maranatha Chapel in August 1984, teaching a midweek Bible study in a recreation center with 30 people. Today, Maranatha serves 7,000 people weekly. He is host to the daily Maranatha Radio show heard on stations across the United States and around the world.

Conor Berry is the church life pastor of Calvary Chapel in Santa Maria, California. He has been a missionary and a church planter in Europe and is currently in transition to serve as lead pastor in 2022.

John Bonner is the founder and director of Calvary Chapel Bible College Peru and the senior pastor of Calvary Chapel Hosanna in Cajamarca. He has served in missions ministry with Calvary Chapel for 40 years in the United States, Mexico, Costa Rica, and Peru.

Gerry Breshears has been a professor of theology at Western Seminary since 1980. In addition to teaching and lecturing at a number of colleges and seminaries around the world, he speaks in many churches. He works in leadership in the Evangelical Theological Society nationally and regionally. He is an elder and a member of the preaching team at Grace Community Church in Gresham, Oregon.

Brian Brodersen is the senior pastor of Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa, California, and the president of Calvary Global Network. Brian also serves as president of Calvary Chapel Bible College. He is the featured speaker on the Back to Basics radio program and the director of Creation Fest (UK). He is extensively involved in missions and church planting around the world.

Brian "Char" Brodersen is the associate pastor at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. Char has spent the last 13 years pastoring a small church in Northern California. Char is very passionate and convicted about lifelong learning and is currently enrolled at Western Seminary for his MABL. He has a deep passion to see the church live out the life of Jesus and put the kingdom of God on display.

Cheryl Brodersen currently oversees the Joyful Life women's Bible study at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. She also hosts a weekly podcast called "Women Worth Knowing," highlighting women from all walks of life. Cheryl is a frequent speaker around the world and she has written several books. It is her joy and privilege to minister biblical truths to women of all ages.

Bill Buffington is the senior pastor of Calvary Chapel Inglewood, California. His life is a walking testimony of the freedom and deliverance made available through Christ Jesus. He is passionate about the transforming work of the gospel, especially in the inner city.

Nick Cady is the lead pastor of White Fields Community Church in Longmont, Colorado. Nick spent 10 years as a missionary, pastor, and church planter in Hungary. He holds a degree in Theology from the University of Gloucestershire in England and is currently pursuing a Masters in Integrative Theology from London School of Theology. Nick is also a part of the CGN Network Membership Task Team.

Aaron Campbell is the founder and lead pastor at Antioch Christian Fellowship. Serving Philadelphia's major universities and drug-and-gang communities alike for over 15 years, Pastor Aaron's teaching and evangelism traverses racial, cultural and socio-economic lines, and Antioch is celebrated as one of Philadelphia's most ethnically-diverse churches.

Richard Cimino is the founding pastor of Metro Calvary. He began his 39 years of pastoral ministry as the high school pastor at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa and then served 13 years as lead and teaching pastor in Northern California before planting Metro Calvary in Roseville, California, in 2004.

Lisa Collins went on her first mission trip to London with Calvary Chapel Fort Lauderdale in July 1999. That experience changed her life. God has given her a passion for equipping, teaching, and training others about the love and power of Jesus Christ. In 2003, she began serving at Calvary Chapel Bible College Europe in Hungary as Ministry and Outreach Director.

Bobby Conway is the founder and host of One-Minute Apologist, a YouTube ministry that provides credible answers to curious questions, and the founding lead pastor of Image Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. He earned his Master of Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary, his Doctor of Ministry in apologetics from Southern Evangelical Seminary, and his Ph.D. from the University of Birmingham in England. Bobby's primary role at Image Church is overseeing the vision, developing the staff, discipling leaders, and overseeing the teaching ministries of the church.

Becket Cook graduated from Talbot School of Theology at Biola University in 2017 with a Master of Arts in Theology. Becket's book, A Change of Affection: A Gay Man's Incredible Story of Redemption, released July 30, 2019. Becket spends much of his time speaking at churches, universities, and conferences helping believers (and non-believers) understand this issue biblically, theologically, culturally, and personally.

Tommy Cota, after living a life dedicated to drugs and violence, which eventually landed him in prison, surrendered his life to Jesus Christ on June 11, 2000. He graduated from Calvary Chapel's School of Ministry and was brought on staff as an assistant pastor at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. In February 2014, Tommy planted Hope Alive Church in Santa Ana.

Hannah Cottage is currently the Connect Director at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa and facilitates EQUIP trainings, ministry teams, and resources for church members who seek to grow in their relationships with Christ.

Kellen Criswell currently serves as director of Calvary Global Network and calvarychapel.com. He is the primary host of the CGN Mission & Methods Podcast. Kellen has served as a worship pastor, assistant pastor, senior pastor, church planter, missionary, and Bible college instructor. He is a graduate of Calvary Chapel Bible College, Faith International University, and Western Seminary.

Jeff Gipe served as the lead pastor of Newport Coast Lighthouse in Newport Beach, California, for 16 years. Recently, Jeff has transitioned from serving as a lead pastor to serving on the CGN Leadership Team. Jeff has a heart to encourage church planters and church leaders. He serves on several church boards and is a CGN local connector in the Southeast and in India.

Jed Gourley has been serving in overseas church-planting missions since 1992. He and his wife, Renee, and their six children have lived in Ukraine and Kyrgyzstan, but since 2014, they have been living and serving in Georgia. Three years ago, they planted Calvary Chapel Tbilisi in Georgia's capital city and are currently preparing for the move of Calvary Chapel Bible College Europe from Budapest, Hungary, to Tbilisi, Georgia.

Jose Hernandez has been given the honor of teaching the Word of God and reaching the lost in the inner city with the gospel—one housing project at a time. He is the founding and senior pastor of Hope Central Watts.

Alan Hirsch is the founder of 100Movements, Forge Mission Training Network, and Future Travelers. Known for his innovative approach to missions, Alan is widely considered to be a thought leader and key mission strategist for churches across the Western world. Alan is cofounder and associate faculty for the M.A. in Missional Church Movements at Wheaton College (Illinois). He is also adjunct professor at Asbury Seminary, Fuller Seminary, George Fox Seminary, among others.

Jeff Jackson is the founder of Shepherd's Staff Mission Facilitators and is currently the director of Church Relations and Missionary Care. Along with his family, Jeff lived in the Philippines from 1987 to 1993 while planting Calvary Chapel of Cebu City.

Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. is the senior pastor of First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland. In addition to his role as senior pastor, he is the board chairman for Project Bridges and The Skinner Institute. He also serves as a board member for Denver Seminary, the Greater Prince George's Business Roundtable, the National Association of Evangelicals, and University of Maryland Capital Region Health. In March of 2020, Pastor Jenkins was installed as chair of the National Association of Evangelicals Board of Directors.

Brian Kelly is a pastor, missionary, and church planter. He and his family helped plant Calvary Chapel Kampala in Uganda. Brian has worked at Maranatha Chapel in San Diego, planted a church north of Seattle called The Bridge, and most recently has pastored in New Zealand at Calvary Chapel Auckland. Currently, Brian is with a team planting a church in Florida.

Brenda Leavenworth serves as the Reliance Women's Director and has a heart and passion to see women develop a deeper understanding of God's Word and cultivate a sincere, lifelong relationship with Jesus Christ. Brenda graduated from Calvary Chapel University with a bachelor's degree in Biblical Studies and is currently working on her master's with an emphasis in Christian leadership.

Ted Leavenworth planted Reliance Church in 2007 and serves as the main teaching pastor. Prior to starting Reliance Church, Ted was the founder and executive pastor of Revival Christian Fellowship in Menifee, where he served for 15 years. He is a graduate of the Calvary Chapel School of Ministry and has a heart for church planting, helping to plant many churches, both nationally and internationally.

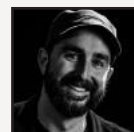

Pam Markey has been directing Calvary Chapel Bible College Europe since 2019. Pam's desire is to use her years of cross-cultural and academic experience to help others be equipped to share the gospel globally.

Manolo Matos graduated in 2010 from Calvary Bible Institute, where he would meet his future wife, Holly. After having served in various areas, both in the church and in the biblical institute, Manolo was ordained for pastoral ministry in 2012. Since then, his focus and vision have been to see people find life and freedom in Jesus.

Phil Metzger is the senior pastor of Calvary San Diego. He was the director of Calvary Chapel Bible College Europe and served as a missionary church planter from 1998 to 2018.

Mike Neglia is the lead pastor of Calvary Cork located in Cork, Ireland. After graduating Bible college in Siegen, Germany, in the summer of 2002, he served at Calvary Cork as a full-time missionary youth outreach coordinator/assistant for two years before taking over as lead pastor.

Gavin Ortlund (Ph.D., Fuller Theological Seminary) serves as senior pastor of First Baptist Church of Ojai in Ojai, California. Gavin blogs regularly at Soliloquium (gavinortlund.com). He is the author of Theological Retrieval for Evangelicals: Why We Need Our Past to Have a Future (Crossway, 2019) and Finding the Right Hills to Die On: The Case for Theological Triage (Crossway/TGC, 2020).

Poimen Ministries (John Cowan, Bill Holdridge, Terry McNabb, Bryan Newberry) is a ministry to senior and lead pastors formed for the purpose of strengthening them that the churches may be strengthened as well. We believe when a pastor is encouraged, the church will be likewise affected. So our vision is to strengthen, and our approach is to connect seasoned, veteran pastors with senior/lead pastors who need assistance in various areas of their ministries. Poimen is highly relational, and we rely on the Lord as we personally connect with pastors.

Todd Proctor serves on the Executive Leadership Team of Alpha USA, helping pastors of key churches across the nation explore the Alpha course within their own context. He founded and was the lead pastor of Rock Harbor in Costa Mesa. Recently, he has led in pioneering The Way, a multi-church gathering, and One Table, creating space for senior leaders to break bread and grow together in kingdom friendship. Todd and his wife Lisa also serve on the team of Canopy, a house-church-based community in his home turf of Newport Mesa in Orange County.

Aaron Salvato is the founder and director of CGN's podcast network GoodLion, CGN's web strategist, and is currently the leader of the GoodLion online young adults' ministry/Bible study. Aaron served for many years as a youth pastor at Calvary Vista, working with both middle school and high school students. Aaron has also had the joy to teach some courses at CCBC and the School of Worship.

Rob Salvato has been the lead pastor of Calvary Vista in Vista, California, since 1996. Prior to that Rob served as a youth pastor, a church planter in Oregon, and has been active in missions work and church planting in 23 countries around the world.

Ed Stetzer, Ph.D., holds the Billy Graham Chair of Church, Mission, and Evangelism at Wheaton College and serves as Executive Director of the Billy Graham Center. Stetzer is the North American regional director for the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelization, a contributing editor for Christianity Today, a columnist for Outreach Magazine, and is frequently cited or interviewed in news outlets such as USA Today and CNN. He is the executive editor of The Gospel Project, a Bible study curriculum used by more than one million individuals each week. He currently serves as interim pastor of Moody Church in Chicago, Illinois.

Bryan Stupar grew up in Southern California and got saved at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. He and his family moved to San Luis Obispo (a beautiful college town along California's Central Coast) to plant Calvary SLO Church. Bryan is passionate about helping men develop a lifestyle of discipleship and coaching/mentoring younger pastors.

Jordan Taylor, M.Div., was the pastor at Calvary Wallingford from 2011 to 2019. He recently transitioned to be the executive pastor of Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. Previously Jordan was an assistant pastor at Calvary Fellowship in Mountlake Terrace and the director of Calvary Chapel Bible College Seattle.

Riley Taylor is the pastor of preaching and vision at Calvary Fellowship in Mountlake Terrace, Washington—a large, growing church located in the suburbs of Seattle. A musician and filmmaker, Riley's work has been seen on Netflix and Amazon Prime, as well as on TBN. He is currently getting his master's in Applied Biblical Leadership from Western Seminary in Portland, Oregon.

Wayne Taylor is the founding pastor and was the lead pastor of Calvary Fellowship Seattle for 41 years. During this time, God used their church to help plant over 50 churches, about half locally and half globally. Recently, Wayne has transitioned to be an itinerate Bible teacher, a support minister to the church, and the director of Calvary Chapel Bible College Seattle.

Justin Thomas is a Washington native who has lived in the Seattle area since 2005. He currently lives in the Capitol Hill neighborhood of Seattle with his wife Brittany and their five children. He is one of the pastors of Calvary: the Hill, which he planted in 2010.

Travis Tyler (Thi'sl) is a St. Louis resident, author, artist, preacher, and urban strategist. Thi'sl has spent the past 15 years traveling the world preaching the gospel, mentoring inner-city youth, and creating resources to rebuild inner-city communities.

Thom Walker is the Social Media Manager at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. He has an MA in Christian Leadership from St. Mellitus College, England.

Chris Wienand started his journey of ministry in South Africa over 35 years ago. A true church-planting veteran, he has led, mentored, and initiated countless plants around the world!

Clay Worrell is a native Californian who spent the first eight years of his adult life as a missionary to Ireland where he planted a Calvary Chapel in Waterford City. He is now the lead pastor of Calvary Tri Valley in Pleasanton, California.

Sarah Yardley is a Californian based in Cornwall, England, who loves Jesus, family, friendships, coffee, travel, and guacamole. She grew up at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa, served at Reality Carpinteria, and currently lives in the United Kingdom, serving full-time with Creation Fest UK and Tubestation in Polzeath.

TRAINING TRACKS-TUESDAY

PREACHING AND TEACHING GOSPEL-CENTERED, EXPOSITORY MESSAGES

Nick Cady • J215

What is gospel-centered Bible teaching, and how is it different from other ways of teaching the Bible? Does studying through a text verse-by-verse always automatically guarantee exposition? In this Training Track, Nick will provide some helpful tools to improve your preaching and teaching of the Bible, including how to make your messages more memorable and impactful for your hearers. Nick is on the steering committee of Expositors Collective, a movement of pastors and leaders working to raise up the next generation of Christ-centered expository preachers and teachers through regional two-day training events and a weekly podcast.

THE POSTURE OF THE CHURCH IN THE AGE OF HATE

Aaron Campbell • Fellowship Hall

We have been commissioned to “co”-mission alongside our Lord and proclaim the gospel to an ailing world. But inherent in that idea is that we remain in sync with the Lord’s heart and mind. Bible-teaching churches are divided about race issues. Biblical outreaches to certain sectors are being branded as practicing a social gospel. Identity and sexuality are at stake like never before, and the church, in some respects, has dropped the ball. Yet, in the midst of it all, Jesus prayed that we be one as He and the Father are one. So how do we grow? How do we not just survive but thrive? How do we stand with authority—as the salt, light, and the pillar of truth before the world? Let’s look to the Scriptures for a profound time of sharing and listening.

SPIRITUAL HEALTH FOR SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP (ROUNDTABLE)

Ted Leavenworth, Rob Salvato • J213

Times of trouble are synonymous with ministry. If there were such a thing as a ministry leader’s dictionary, “Times of Trouble” would certainly be defined as, “Days that end with the letter Y.” Ministry, however, never waits for an opportune time. The spiritual health of our people is the job that God has entrusted us with, and today is the day of salvation. But as a wise pastor once said, “You can’t give what you ain’t got.” As we minister to the spiritual health of others, how do we maintain our own spiritual health?

LEADERSHIP COACHING

Poimen Ministries • H107

Poimen Ministries is a mentor relationship that helps you turn your God-given vision into action and avoid the distractions. Are you doing what God commissioned you to do, or do you feel held back? The Leadership Coaching Training Track is designed to help you identify your calling and make a plan that will move you forward through any season of ministry.

THE WAY OF JESUS IN A SEXUALLY BROKEN CULTURE

Justin Thomas • Main Sanctuary

The Christian sexual ethic has become increasingly distinctive in recent times. In the eyes of the world, it is often seen not merely as eccentric but regressive and even dangerous. Issues of sexuality are not restricted to our external context but are prevalent within our own congregations. In our fallen world, what does it look like to follow Jesus as a community that embraces God’s ways for sexuality, proclaims them winsomely as a better way, and meets people right in the midst of their sexual brokenness with a message of hope and community of support? This Training Track will seek to answer these questions and review the necessary components for a sexually-faithful church.

TRAINING TRACKS—WEDNESDAY

GOSPEL-CENTERED THINKING FOR MINISTRY IN TODAY'S WORLD

Gerry Breshears • Main Sanctuary

Doing ministry in real life requires priorities—we simply cannot do it all! We will outline a “Die/Divide/Debate/Decide For” approach to gospel issues and use it to work through setting up strategies for effective gospel-centered ministry in today’s world.

CHURCH-PLANTING ROUNDTABLE

Nick Cady, Phil Metzger • J215

Calling all church planters! Nick Cady and Phil Metzger will be sharing about “Cultivate,” a program developed to assess, train, and deploy new church planters and missionaries, and inviting you to discuss strategies and issues related to planting new churches today. Calvary Chapel has a rich history as a church-planting movement, and we want to encourage this in the next generation by using the relationships and resources we have as a network to better identify, equip, deploy, and support the planting of new, gospel-centered, missional churches around the world. Whether you are a current or future church planter, a pastor who desires to raise up and send out church planters, or are just interested in the discussion, we need your voice around the table, so please join us for this important discussion.

HOW TO ENGAGE THE LGBTQ COMMUNITY LIKE JESUS

Becket Cook • J213

How did Jesus interact with sinners and tax collectors? How should we engage with those in the LGBTQ community? Jesus had such love and compassion on the outcasts of society, but He never left them in their sins. He loved them but called them to repentance. Looking at Luke 5:27–32, where Jesus calls Levi, we will unpack how Jesus balanced grace and truth. How do we love our gay neighbors without compromising the biblical sexual ethic? As someone who lived as a gay man for 20+ years but was redeemed by God on September 20, 2009, I have been on both sides of the issue of homosexuality. We will examine this issue biblically, theologically, pastorally, and personally.

THE WAY OF COMMUNITY: ENCOURAGEMENT AND SUPPORT WHEN LEADING AS A WOMAN (ROUNDTABLE)

Brenda Leavenworth • Fellowship Hall

“The Way” was the most widely known name for the early Christian church. For us today, the way of Jesus is a journey, a road less traveled, where we learn to navigate life as followers of Christ. However, Jesus doesn’t intend for us to walk this road alone. His desire is for us to be part of a Spirit-filled, Spirit-led, Spirit-empowered community of believers. As part of the way of Jesus community, we share common characteristics, consistent theology, and a love for the people of God. We share a heart that supports and encourages one another. Join us as we discuss, The Way of Community. You will be introduced to the new CGN Women’s Task Team and have time to ask questions and give input into our future together.

LOCAL CONNECTOR'S TRAINING

Clay Worrell, Wayne Taylor • Gymnasium

This Training Track is exclusively for current CGN Local Connectors. In this track, we will be talking through what our call and responsibilities are as CGN Local Connectors. We will also be introducing the new Network Membership process and walking through what the Local Connector’s involvement in this process will be. There will also be a time for questions and sharing of ideas and testimony from your local context. We strongly encourage all CGN Local Connectors to come to this Training Track.

TRAINING TRACKS-SPANISH

(ENG) PROVOKING JEALOUSY (ROMANS 11:11)

(ESP) PROVOCAR CELOS (ROMANOS 11:11)

John Bonner • Online Only

As believers in their Messiah, we gentiles have a tremendous debt to the people of Israel. What does the future hold for the descendants of Abraham, and what role does the church have in these last days?

(ENG) ONE ANOTHER - GOD'S PLAN FOR COMMUNITY

(ESP) UNOS CON OTROS - EL PLAN DE DIOS PARA EL COMPAÑERISMO

Manolo Matos • Online Only

In the midst of a polarized and antagonistic world, the church should be an oasis of grace, love, and truth, a piece of heaven on earth. In this session, we will discover the heart of God for Christian fellowship.

CONSULTATION SERVICES

Visit the Welcome Kiosk to sign up for a designated appointment.

COACHING ON BYLAWS, CHURCH BOARDS, VISION/MISSION/CORE VALUES

Ted Leavenworth & the Leadership Care/Coaching Task Team • Room 1

The CGN Leadership Care & Coaching Team is available during the conference for consultation. This may include coaching in areas of logistics, staffing, board structure, budgeting, etc., or confidential pastoral care for you or your staff.

DEVELOPING MISSIONARY OR PASTORAL SUPPORT MINISTRIES

Jeff Jackson • Bride's Room

Whether your church is already fully engaged in global missions or you're thinking about a first step, it would be an honor to help you move things forward. I've helped church leaders understand and impart global missions vision, write missions policy, establish missionary care vision and structures for providing it, and establish or integrate short-term teams into a long-term strategy.

LEADERSHIP COACHING/POIMEN MINISTRIES

Bill Holdridge, John Cowan, Terry McNabb, and Bryan Newberry • H107

We provide a mentor relationship that helps you turn your God-given vision into action and avoid the distractions. Are you doing what God commissioned you to do or do you feel held back? Identify your calling and make a plan that will move you forward through any season of ministry.

SOCIAL MEDIA CONSULTATION

Thom Walker • Room 1

If you are looking to improve your social media planning or to expand your presence across more platforms, you can sign up for an open consultation with CCCM's Social Media Manager. We can help provide tools to boost your reach, organize your methods, and help you deliver better content, as you fulfill your commission as a church leader.

CGN MISSION

Calvary Global Network (CGN) is a family of churches working together to proclaim the gospel, make disciples, and plant churches.

FOCUS AREAS

We accomplish our mission through three focus areas: Renewal, Relationship, and Resourcing.

RENEWAL

We believe that God is on a mission to renew all things through the life, death, resurrection, and rule of Jesus (Eph. 1:9–10). We believe the church is a consequence of the missionary activity of God that brings renewal to the world, and the church serves as a catalyst of God's mission of renewal, as we proclaim the gospel, make disciples, and plant churches in partnership with Him and one another (Mk. 16:15; Matt. 28:19).

RELATIONSHIP

Relationships are at the heart of God's mission and what it means to be a network of churches. CGN facilitates opportunities for leaders to connect and cultivate relationships for leadership care, coaching, and collaboration, as we partner together in God's mission of renewal.

RESOURCING

As an organization, CGN seeks to respond to the resource needs of church leaders around the world by publishing theologically rich and practically relevant content, developing tools, processes, and strategic partnerships for leadership assessment, training, care, and coaching.

CGN CORE VALUES

MISSIONAL LIFE + MINISTRY

CGN values the flexibility to be both biblically faithful and culturally engaging, as we proclaim the unchanging gospel message in terms and methods that overcome cultural and social barriers to understanding. We further believe that every local body of Christians should be free and encouraged to practice the essence of the faith in local church expressions that resonate deeply with their cultural context and background.

GOSPEL-CENTERED LIFE + MINISTRY

CGN values a gospel-centered approach to life and ministry, exalting in and working from the implications of the life, death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. We believe Christian preaching, discipleship, and church-planting efforts should be intentionally gospel centered in theology and practice.

KINGDOM VISION

CGN values God's work and wisdom through the worldwide body of Christ—acknowledging diversity of theological and ministry convictions. We welcome and pursue collaborative ministry partnerships with like-minded movements, denominations, churches, seminaries, and other Christian ministries for the sake of the gospel.

BIBLICAL LITERACY

CGN values the essentiality of the Bible to Christian faith and spirituality. We believe healthy Christian lives and congregations require biblical teaching and education through culturally appropriate methods, that God's people might understand His will, submit to His authority, and find vitality in His truth.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP MEET & GREET

Ladies, join Cheryl Brodersen and fellow women's ministry leaders for a time of fellowship, fun, connection, and encouragement. We will introduce an insightful panel highlighting helpful resources to equip and encourage you. Tea and light refreshments will be served.

GoodLion

GoodLion Podcast Network began as a dream of Christian podcasters, Aaron Salvato, Brian Higgins, Mike Neglia, and Lindsay Kennedy. The idea was simple: What if Jesus-loving content creators joined forces to partner together for Kingdom work? In 2018, they began to work together toward the goal, and soon after, the team at Calvary Global Network decided to come alongside them to support the vision.

We work together as a team to produce free, high-quality content that points people to Jesus, encourages the church and equips creatives to reach people through podcasting!

POIMEN
Ministries

STRENGTHENING PASTORS TO STRENGTHEN CHURCHES

The approach of Poimen Ministries is to connect experienced pastors with senior/lead pastors who need assistance in various areas of their ministries. Our ministry is highly relational. We rely on the Lord as we personally connect with pastors.

WHO WE ARE

We are 12 pastors seasoned with several decades of experience. Our passion is to serve current senior/lead pastors. Because we are pastors, we know pastors. We know their struggles and joys and we adhere to strict principles of confidentiality in our ministry.

WHAT WE OFFER

We listen, respond, counsel, coach, mentor, and we assess, teach and serve. We trust the Lord for His wisdom as we assist pastors.

HOW WE SERVE

Strengthening Pastors, Church and Ministry Assessments, Worship Assessment, Encouragement and Perspective, Leadership Responsibilities, Marriage Counseling, Pastoral Coaching, Pastoral Transition, Preaching, Vision and Mission, and more.
